Free Travelling Facilities to the Members of Legislature.

Q.—84. Sri C. R. RANGE GOWDA (Magadi).—

Will the Chief Minister be pleased to state:—

(a) whether Government are contemplating giving facilities of free travel to the Members of Legislature in the State Transport Buses;

(b) if so, when such facilities would be given ?

A.—Sri S. NIJALINGAPPA (Chief Minister).—

(a) and (b) There are no State Government Transport buses. The Mysore State Road Transport Corporation which is an autonomous body is running some buses in the State. If the Members of the Legislature are to travel free of payment in these buses. the Corporation will have to be reimbursed by the State Government. In that event, the Mysore Legislature Salaries Act will have to be amended for providing such facilities. The matter is under consideration.
